PLATE 30

Airborne (continued)

1. 502d Parachute Infantry Regiment

Worn from: February 1942–November 1945 (unauthorized).

The unit was assigned to the 101st Airborne Division. The winged skull is a traditional symbol of paratroopers and alludes to the motto "Death From Above."

2. 503d Parachute Infantry Battalion (Separate)—First Design

Worn from: February 1942–Late 1943 (unauthorized).

The origin of the design is unknown. The 503d Parachute Infantry Battalion, activated 22 August 1941, was redesignated First Battalion, 504th Parachute Infantry Battalion on 5 October 1941.

3. 503d Parachute Infantry Battalion (Separate)—Second Design

Worn from: Late 1943–December 1945 (unauthorized).

The design is a caricature of an angry bee rapidly descending toward its target.

Campaigns: World War II (New Guinea, Leyte, Luzon, Southern Philippines).

Decorations: Distinguished Unit Citation (streamer embroidered CORREGIDOR) and Philippine Presidential Unit Citation (streamer embroidered 17 OCTOBER 1944–4 JULY 1945).

4. 503d Airborne Regimental Combat Team (Separate)

Worn from: February 1945–December 1945.

Approved for local wear only.

The design incorporates the unit's motto, "The Rock," which refers to its airborne drop on the island of Corregidor.

5. 503d Airborne Infantry Regiment

Worn from: February 1951–March 1957 (unauthorized).

The unit was assigned to the Eleventh Airborne Division during the time noted. On 16 February 1945, the regiment made its famous combat drop on the island of Corregidor and secured "the top of the Rock." Thus the inscription in the design.

6. 503d Infantry Regiment—Airborne

Worn from: May 1965–August 1971.

The unit was assigned to the 173d Airborne Infantry Brigade during the time noted. The design is an embroidered replica of the distinctive insignia of the unit. The colors blue and white are those of the infantry. The inverted triangle terminating in the broken fort symbolizes the drop on Corregidor, whereas the three parachutes represent the other three battle honors awarded to the organization for its service in World War II. "The Rock" is the unit's motto.

7. 504th Airborne Infantry Regiment—Headquarters

Worn from: 1954–1956.

The unit was assigned to the Eighty-second Airborne Division. This is one of a series of seventeen different patches. The other sixteen are designated for headquarters and headquarters companies "A" through "N." "Devils" is the nickname of the regiment.

8. 504th Airborne Infantry Regiment—Variation

Worn from: 1957–1959 (unauthorized).

The unit was assigned to the Eighty-second Airborne Division. The design is an embroidered replica of the distinctive insignia of the unit. Blue is the color of the infantry whose functions are represented by the sword flaming through the sky. The flames symbolize the zeal of the personnel in the performance of their duties. The motto is expressive of the determination of the personnel to strike swiftly and hold their ground at any cost.

9. 504th Parachute Infantry Regiment

Worn from: May 1942–December 1947 (unauthorized).

The unit was assigned to the Eighty-second Airborne Division and, as the 504th Parachute Infantry Regiment, were known as "Those devils in baggy pants" to the Germans who met them on the field of battle.

Campaigns: World War II (Sicily [with arrowhead], Naples-Foggia, Anzio [with arrowhead], Normandy [with arrowhead], Rhineland [with arrowhead], Ardennes-Alsace, Central Europe).

Decorations: Cited in the Order of the Day, Belgian army, for the Ardennes, Belgium, and Germany;

Redesignated: Army National Guard Operational Support Airlift Command
Worn from: 9 February 1994–Current.

The star symbolizes excellence, authority, and command. It is combined with an annulet representing complete service and total readiness. The pentagon refers to the command's location in the Washington, D. C. area. Red, white, and blue are our national colors.

21. Thailand—United States Army—Support

Worn from: 22 September 1966–15 May 1979.

The color red signifies the enemy threat. The blue vertical stylized arrow refers to the penetration of threat and offensive action. The elephant tusks symbolize Thailand and the barring of enemy infiltration.

PLATE 62

Transportation

1. Second Transportation Command

Worn from: 12 July 1968–May 1971.

The design of the insignia was originally approved in 1968 for the Second Transportation Terminal Command. The wavy partition line refers to the command's operation of water terminals and over-the-shore sites. The annulets stand for wheels, symbol of transportation. They are two in number, in reference to the organization's numerical designation. The two curved spaces between the spokes simulate a taeguk, in allusion to the command's activation in Korea in 1960.

Campaigns: World War II (East Indies, Papua, New Guinea).

Decorations: Distinguished Unit Citation (streamer embroidered PAPUA), Meritorious Unit Commendation (streamer embroidered KOREA).

2. Third Transportation Command

Worn from: 27 October 1969–8 September 1972.

Redesignated: Third Transportation Brigade

Worn from: 8 September 1972–1994.

Redesignated: Third Transportation Agency

Worn from: 16 September 1994–Current.

The segment of railway track symbolizes the basic mission of the brigade, and the three ties allude to its numerical designation. The five-pointed star is symbolic of command.

Campaigns: World War II (European-African-Middle Eastern theater, Asiatic-Pacific theater), Korean War (UN Defensive, UN Offensive, CCF Intervention, First UN Counteroffensive, CCF Spring Offensive, UN Summer-Fall Offensive, Second Winter, Summer-Fall 1952, Third Winter, Summer 1953).

Decorations: Meritorious Unit Commendations (streamers embroidered IRAN; JAPAN; KOREA 1950–1951; KOREA 1951–1952; KOREA 1952–1953; and KOREA 1953–1954), Republic of Korea Presidential Unit Citations (streamers embroidered KOREA 1950–1952, and KOREA 1952–1953).

3. Fourth Transportation Command

Worn from: 26 June 1967–12 May 1975.

Redesignated: Fourth Transportation Brigade

Worn from: 12 May 1975–18 February 1981.

Redesignated: Fourth Transportation Command

Worn from: 18 February 1981–1991.

The wheel, a symbol for movement, and the trident, an attribute of Poseidon (god of the sea in Greek mythology) allude to the mission of the organization in the movement of vital cargo across land and waterway.

Campaigns: World War II (Normandy, Northern France), Vietnam (Defense, Counteroffensive and Phases II/III/IV/V/VI/VII, Tet and Tet/69 Counteroffensives, Summer-Fall 1969, Winter-Spring 1970, Sanctuary Counteroffensive, Consolidation I and II, Cease-Fire).

Decorations: Meritorious Unit Commendations (streamers embroidered FRANCE 1944; FRANCE 1945; and VIETNAM 1963–1969).

4. Fifth Transportation Command

Worn from: 13 April 1967–5 June 1972.

The wedge or V-shape indicates the numerical designation of the command. The disc represents the wheel, a symbol basic to transportation. The star at the wheel's hub represents the command function.
